CREAMERY BY-LAWS.

Rules and Regulations for the Guidance of Patrons.

At a recent meeting of the Directors of the Moose Jaw Creamery Association (Ltd.) the following By-laws were adopted:

Rules and regulations to govern the Moose Jaw Creamery Association (Ltd.) for the season of 1894, adopted at an adjourned meeting of the Directors held in H. McDougall's office on the above date.

1. That the Creamery shall be run at cost, or in other words, that after paying running expenses and a dividend of ten per cent. on the paid up stock of the shareholders and six per cent. on the money borrowed, the profits shall go to the patrons of the Creamery.

2. That the Directors shall and do hereby assume the whole responsibility of hauling the milk to the Creamery and returning the share of skim milk to the respective stands of the patrons and pay for it out of the proceeds of the sale of the butter.

3. That the butter-milk be sold and the proceeds paid into the general fund of the Creamery.

4. If any patron does not live on one of the established routes and the Directors do not consider it advisable to establish a route by said patrons, he will be allowed to deliver his milk or cream at the factory and no expense in connection with the hauling will be charged to his account.

5. When one or more patrons are isolated from one of our routes, they will procure a separator and will deliver their cream in good condition at the factory no charge will be made for hauling.

6. All milk shall be paid for according to the amount of butterfat shown by the Babcock test.

7. Patrons shall be required to deliver their milk in clean cans, their own private tubs being prohibited, of less than 10 lbs. at wholesale price.

8. Shareholders shall be entitled to the same privilege as the patrons and get the butter required for their own private use and table at the same price as patrons, but in every case share holders shall prepay the cash to the Treasurer and obtain his order, which shall secure him the butter from the butter maker at the factory.

9. In the case of any patron who does not continue to furnish the milk or cream from his or her herd as agreed upon to the end of the season, a sum equal to the loss to the Company caused by such discontinuance shall be deducted from his or her share of the receipts, unless he or she shall have first obtained the consent of the Directors to such discontinuance.

10. The Directors shall insure the butter in an Insurance Company, but the Directors shall not be responsible for any of the butter which may be destroyed by fire, other than the amount received by the Directors from the Insurance Company.

11. Milk shall only be supplied from healthy cows.

12. Pastures must be kept free from carrion and all decaying matter which may cause noxious smells, and all utensils coming in contact with the milk or cream must be of tin.

13. Each patron who furnishes milk or cream to the Creamery is thereby considered as having agreed to the foregoing rules.

RULES FOR MILK HAULERS.

That the milk haulers' hands shall be according to the rules on page 160 of the Dairy Commissioner's report for 1890.

1. They shall keep their milk wagons clean and free from all bad smells.
2. They shall protect the milk cans from damage.
3. They shall use straps or ropes to prevent spilling or waste.

4. They shall be liable for all loss incurred through their negligence or fault.

5. They shall be liable to a fine of $1.00 for every time when they fail to reach the Creamery at or before the stipulated time of 9 o'clock a.m.

6. They shall deliver to each patron on their return trip on the same day as gathered his share of the skim milk as allotted by the butter maker.

7. All milk or cream must be drawn on suitable spring wagons.

In conclusion we, as Directors, might say to the patrons we have the Creamery mostly equipped and will soon be in running order. It is necessary for its success that it be run in a systematic and impartial manner. We fully intend to run the Creamery as cheaply as possible and give every cent possible to the Patrons.

In letting the different routes we are compelled to guarantee a number of months' work to the different milk drawers, hence in order to make routes a success it will be necessary for every patron to send to the end of the manufacturing season. In order to make the Creamery a success it is necessary to get a good price in order to get a good price we must make a fine article and in order to make a fine article the maker must have good pure milk or cream. It will be necessary for our patrons to see that all the surrounding fields are pure and that all the paths, cans or anything that come in contact with the milk or cream are scrupulously clean, paid that the same be tin; and that the animal heat be removed from the milk as soon as possible by stirring and airing.

We need not enumerate to the farmers of this district the advantages of a creamery in connection with stock raising and general farming that is admitted by all.

We would like to send attending patrons to see the factory a list of the number of routes they will supply milk from for the coming season as soon as possible and we will let the different routes in the best possible advantage.

President Secretary.

Royal on "The Present Crisis."

MONTREAL, March 9.—For some months past Hon. Joseph Royal, ex-Governor of the North-West Territories, has been writing a book and to day he is in question, which is entitled "The Present Crisis" has been given to the public. Artemus Ward remarked that if anyone had a crisis about his or her person it had better be produced, and when upon this advice the ex-Lieutenant-Governor has brought forth his own in the shape of a plea for the dismemberment of the empire. Mr. Royal's conclusion to the funny conclusion that certain changes are absolutely necessary to make men's consciences feel the Dominion of Canada. He, in a word, wants the colonial tie relaxed and Canadian independence secured. If a stranger were to read Mr. Royal's book the conclusion would be reached that Canada is suffering from every imaginary evil, both politically and socially, and the hon. gentleman has found a remedy for all this and he has labelled the medicine "emancipation." The author also pictures the position of the Roman Catholic minority in the English speaking provinces as deplorable, and it is evident that if this emancipation be not accorded the whole country will immediately go to the dogs.

CARNEL ITEMS.

We wish the Newsboys would explain also "P.G." can be in the next issue. Owing to the nice weather we are now having we hope he will not drift out of existence and neglect his duty.

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. J. Frank has been so ill. The people sympathize with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath are about to leave this neighborhood. Their loss will be regretted by their neighbors.

The people around here think Spring will soon be at hand when they hear of the pin-tailed ducks so near Wood Mountain as seen by the Moose Jaw Times.

Some of our young men went westward to spend the day at Mr. T. Falconer's. Upon arriving at his red shanty they found no one at home. There must be some great attraction for him somewhere.

The Carmel correspondent happening to be in town on Wednesday last was not surprised to see the renowned wedding party of Carmel on their way to the residence of the Rev. Mr. Murray, where they were united in matrimony. Their horses had on several strings of bells which added to the jollity of the occasion. Your correspondent extends his hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

There was a great enquiry about Mr. J. Smith a few days ago as to where he had absented himself to. He turned up in a few days and everyone was glad to hear he returned with safety.

Things are looking as if there were going to be another wedding in Carmel in the future.

Mr. H. Heath while visiting a few days ago waited for the approach of the moon. It failed to show that night and a was prowling around for the trail and struck for the light and reached it with safety.

Miss R. Hudson has been gathering on Monday night. A delightful party, under games, and other amusements constituted the evening's programme. A splendid time was spent for a few hours.

A YOUNG MAN.

Edward W. Bok's closing words to young men in a recent article in the Cosmopolitan, are as follows: First—That, whatever else he may strive to be, he must, first of all, be absolutely honest. From honorable principles he can never swerve. A temporary success is often possible on what are not exactly dishonest but "shady" lines; but such success is only temporary, with a certainty of permanent loss. The surest business success—yes, the only success worth the making are built upon honest foundations. There can be no "blinking" at the truth or at honesty, no half-way compromises. There is but one way to be successful and that is to be absolutely honest; and there is but one way to be honest. Honesty is not only the foundation, but the capstone as well of business success.

Second—He must be alert, alive to every opportunity. He cannot afford to lose a single point, for that single point might prove the very link that would make complete the whole chain of a business success.

Third—He must ever be willing to learn, never overlooking the fact that others have long ago forgotten what he has still to learn. Firmness of decision is an admirable trait in business. The young man whose opinions can be to-sed from one side to the other is poor material. But youth is full of errors, and caution is a strong trait.

Fourth—If he be wise, he will entirely avoid the use of liquors. If the question of harm done by intoxicating liquor is an open one, the question of the actual good derived from it is not.

Fifth—Let him remember that a young man's strongest recommendation is his respectability. Some young men apparently successful, may be flashy in dress, loud in manner, and disrespectful of women and sacred things. But the young man who is respectable always wears best. The way a young man carries himself in his private life often means much to him in his business career. No matter where he is, or in whose company—respectability and all that it implies, will always command respect. And if any young man wishes a few rules even more concise, here it is:

Get into a business you like. Devote yourself to it.

Be honest in everything. Employ caution; think out a thing well before you enter upon it.

Sleep eight hours every night. Do everything that means keeping in good health. School yourself not to worry; worry kills, work doesn't.

Avoid liquors of all kinds. If you must smoke, smoke moderately. Shun discussion on two points—religion and politics.

And lastly but not least: Marry a true woman, and have your own home.

SALMAGUNDI.

"Draw nearer still I whisper in thine ear."

The anarchists talk wildly and boastfully wherever they appear, but when they come face to face with responsibility of the situation their courage usually fails. The only exceptions to this rule are on the part of those whose brains are more seriously disordered than in average cases, and whose boasting is mistaken for courage, and expressions of willingness to die for the cause are misinterpreted as patriotism.

Since several of the European governments have proceeded to call these miscreants to an account it is observed that there has been a flight by the hundred and thousand to more hospitable lands. The leaders, especially, make speedy work of getting out of harm's way, and many of them have crossed the channel and encased themselves on English soil, so that Britain is now practically the seat of operations.

But this appears to have created more or less alarm among the Britons, who, though having no law against the coming of these fellows, are now content to receive and welcome them as their neighbors. At last the government has awakened to the fact that the swarm of anarchists who have within the last few years found refuge on her shores are an undesirable and dangerous class, and now it is proposed to take measures to put an end to the steadily growing practice of refugees of every description seeking an asylum in English territory. This may lead to a new departure, for it has been the habit of Englishmen for centuries that they extended hospitality to all comers, and more especially to political refugees.
But they now feel that harboring the anarchists is exposing their own government and institutions to peril, and it is probable that preventive action will be taken at an early day.

Some time since Erastus Wiman wrote a book, entitled "How to Succeed," which attained considerable notoriety and sale. Now that its author has acquired still greater fame, of a less desirable kind, in the role of a forger and embezzler, his advice on the subject of successful business methods will be likely to lose weight and force.
How easy it is for men to preach; how easy to give good advice, and how difficult to follow it; how easy to raise a high standard, and how difficult to attain unto it! But the preaching and the advice and the standard are just as true and as much needed, if weak human nature does sometimes, or even often, fall short of it all. How much lower it might fall if it were not for the high aim and standard! The fault is not there, but in the man.

There are few features more important to the farmer's house than the literary features. It is claimed by some that the tastes of the children of a household are moulded in the schoolroom, but we insist that it is in the home, and the literature supplied the youthful mind is largely responsible for it. To say the least the home should be supplied with the best and purest literature that can be furnished, in order that the influence, to say the least, may be for the best. Some homes, we regret to say, are almost totally unsupplied in this direction, which is almost as grave a mistake as to furnish bad literature. The youthful mind naturally thirsts for something, and the desire should be supplied. There are a great number of magazines and periodicals published which are good as far as they go, but this must be supplemented with travel, biographies, history and other important works. Then there should be some general newspapers, and several papers devoted especially to the calling in which you are engaged. Heap up the reading matter about your home in order that your boys and girls may grow up in a knowledge of the world. There is nothing that will avail them more in after years, in the real battle of life, the struggle to maintain one's self here on earth than a general knowledge of the world obtained by reading good books and newspapers. This is an education entirely outside of the text books, yet without a knowledge of the world is in a deporable condition. Fill the home with choice reading matter, make the young heart glad and open wide the avenues of learning. That which they will be induced to acquire by their own inclinations by means being placed within their reach will be far more readily grasped than that which they have to obtain at school. The home is the best school on earth then. Its educations are conducted under some other name and to do this successfully all that is necessary is to make home the happiest place on earth and provide the means to the young of carrying research to the farthest limit.

J. H. BRICKWOOD'S CASE.

A Government Official and his Rheumatism Cured by 12 Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills—Sets
all the People Asking Questions of the Beggists.

KINGSTON, March 12.—The fact that rheumatism is caused by diseased Kidneys, has been again conclusively proved by the case of Mr. J. H. Brickwood, fishery inspector for this district. He suffered from rheumatism for fifteen years and found no cure in the prescriptions of doctors or in patent medicines. Finally, he used Dodd's Kidney Pills, twelve boxes of which cured him. Harry Wade, the well known druggist here, who sold Mr. Brickwood the pills, says he is overrun with inquiries as to the genuineness of Mr.
Brickwood's story, of which he is able to satisfy everyone. He also reports large sales of the pills with most satisfactory results in every case.

PILLS.

In these days of sensational advertising it is difficult to know which is the best, or if there is any best among them. Nearly every family is a consumer of pills of some sort, and finally become attached to some particular make for the reason that they produce the desired effect for the time being, without regard to after results, one of the worst features of which is the necessity of their constant use. We offer BOLE'S CATHARTIC PILLS as a safe and reliable family pill, purely vegetable, compound of mandrake, Jandelion and other vegetable extracts, (no mercury), for the cure of chronic constipation, sick headache, biliousness, or inactive liver. They won't cure Consumption in its last stages, Bright's Disease, or replace dismembered limbs. They bear no startling name intended to deceive, but are a good honest pill and will do what we claim for them. Note further that our market is local, we stake our reputation, we ask a trial. A generous box for 25 cents. Manufactured by

Mr. H. J. Stuart's Entertainment on Monday evening in Russell Hall is the topic of conversation. A large attendance may be expected. One of the most features will be a series of comic sketches which will bring out the characteristics of some of our leading citizens. Tickets for sale at Bole's Drug Store and H. W. Ladies' Guild Bazaar.

The annual bazaar and supper of the Ladies Guild of St. John the Baptist Church will be held in the town hall on Tuesday, April 3rd. The hall will be open to the public between the hours of 14 and 17 o'clock free. In the evening an admission of 35 cents will be charged. The supper provided by the Guild has always been excellent and handsome display of fancy work, etc. has always attracted great crowds. It is safe to predict that this year's event will be as successful as in past years.

Shooting Horses.

Mr. Hiram Rye, who lives south-east of here, was brought before Seymour Green, J.P., charged with shooting at horses running at large, and after examining a number of witnesses the case was dismissed.

War on the Gophers.

Mr. W. W. Bole has quite a laboratory fitted up in his basement for the manufacture of his celebrated solution of strychnine. Mr. Bole has a contract for the supply of a large quantity of the solution to each electoral district in the Territories and his weekly output is very large. Mr. Bole recently placed with his wholesale firm the largest order for strychnine that has ever been known to come from a retail druggist in any country in the world. Mr. Bole is the sworn enemy of gophers and the Times wishes him every success in his enterprise.

Spring Immigration.

Mr. A. Wilson returned from an extended visit to Ontario. He travelled through the country from Ottawa to Theatford and found things very dull. The price of horses has never been so low as at present. Mr. Wilson reports that numbers would come to this country if they could pull up stakes, but they are too much involved where they are. He looks for quite a large immigration of moneyed settlers to the Moose Jaw District in the spring. While in Peterborough he had a long conversation with James Melgum, a large mill owner who may come to Moose Jaw with a view to starting a flour mill.

The Regina Hockey Match.

The final game between Moose Jaw and Regina was played in Regina rink on Tuesday evening. The rink was well filled with spectators and considerable interest was manifested in the match. A splendid game of hockey was put together by both teams. The result was a victory for Regina by a score of five goals to three. The Reginas were strong in team play, Lister making some good goal shots. The teams were composed as follows:

REGINA.		MOOSE JAW.
U. Whitmore.	Goal.	Ed Baxter.
B. Whitmore.	Point.	G. Kew.
W. Cap.	Cover Point.	B. McLe.
R. McIntyre.		Armstrong.
W. McCaffrey.		J. McHugh.
W. Smith.		Wm. Smith.
W. Jackson.		A. M. Harkin.

Umpires: Moose Jaw, Hamilton Lang; Regina, John Gordon. Referee T. E. Battell.

A skating tournament was held after the match.

North-West Immigration.

"When we come nearer home," says the Minneapolis Tribune in an editorial on "Immigration Tides," we find the Canadian Government exerting every energy to divert immigration from the United States to the Dominion, and particularly to the Northwest Territories. The latter alone have an area of 2,200,000 square miles, nearly equal to that of the United States, and are as yet practically without population or development. The liberal inducements and the ardent and thorough missionary work which is being done both by the Canadian government, the Canadian railway and commercial interests, and by the mother country in turning the immigration tide into the Canadian Dominion, can scarcely fail in producing a diminishing effect upon immigration to this country."

In Memoriam.

(Lines written on the death of the late Sarah Smith by a friend.)

Farewell dear Sarah, rest in peace, thy toils and cares are o'er,
And you are free from suffering now on Canada's blissful shore.
How hard to lay thy dear, dear form within the silent tomb!
Our hearts are sad and sore with pain,
and lonely is their home.
It does not seem like home to us, there is an empty chair,
And every place is lonely now, for Sarah is not there.
We did not dream that death so soon would take thee from our side;
It took from us our dearest friend,
a true and faithful guide.
But oh, how sad and lonely we miss thy counsel here;
Oh, there is none to take thy place, no one to us so dear.
Our hearts are sad and sore with pain,
We often sit and weep;
Oh, could we press one more kiss upon thy care-worn cheek.
Brothers and sisters too are sad, their hearts with grief are riven;
But oh, methinks 'tis wrong to weep, when thou art safe in heaven.
But when we meet in that blessed land, with joy our hearts will swell.
To meet one loved one gone before, no more to say farewell.

A Libel on Moose Jaw.

The account of the attempted escape at Moose Jaw station of the prisoner Hill, which appears in the Free Press of Montreal must have been written by a pilgrim. There was a somewhat large crowd on the platform on the evening in question but probably not more than eight or ten paid any attention to the occurrence. Occasionally a fusillade on the main street has the effect of emptying the barber shop, but the people of Moose Jaw do not as a rule manifest interest in such a trivial matter as the firing of a single shot. A representative of THE TIMES was writing a letter just inside the dining room when the shot was fired but he supposed that someone had been called a liar, and finished his writing. Either the writer of the Free Press account has not been "very long out," or Chief Clark has been drawing a long bow since his return to Winnipeg.

Attempted Escape of a Prisoner.

An exciting scene took place on the C.P.R. platform here on Friday night last while No. 2 express was at the station. Chief Clarke, of the Mounted Police, was on board in charge of a prisoner named Hill, arrested in Leek bridge for stealing a coat from the Seymour House, Winnipeg. While here the Chief and prisoner went into the Dining Hall for lunch and while returning to the train Hill, who was unshackled, made a bold dash for liberty over the platform of the car. Chief Clarke fired a shot, which had the effect of bringing the prisoner to a standstill. He returned and crawled under a car to the platform. A tussle ensued, in which Hill got the worst of it and he was finally overpowered, shackled and put in the baggage car. In his flight across the yard he struck his leg against a switch and knocked his knee-cap off.

A Bad Accident.

Allen Tuxford, of Buffalo Lake, had his right eye removed on Tuesday last in Regina by Dr. Good. Mr. Tuxford was engaged in one of Moore & McDowell's lumber camps, about 50 miles from Prince Albert. One day he was engaged in chopping down a stump that was in the way and the frozen wood chipped very badly. A chip struck him in the eye and it hurt it severely. The camp foreman refused to allow him to take a horse to go to Prince Albert for treatment and the unfortunate young was compelled to remain in camp four days suffering the tortures of the last. On the fourth day, through the kind offices of Mr. J. W. Foster, Tuxford was conveyed to Prince Albert and from there he came to Moose Jaw. On Monday night, in company with his brother, he went to Regina to consult Dr. Good, the eminent specialist. The doctor was of the opinion that had he seen the eye a few days before he could have saved it. The operation of removing the eye occupied less than five minutes.

NOTICE.

THE following is a summary of the Regulations with respect to the manner of recording claims for MINERAL LANDS other than Coal Lands, and the conditions governing the purchase of the same.

Any person may explore vacant Dominion Lands not appropriated or reserved by Government for other purposes, and may search therein, either by surface or subterranean prospecting, for mineral deposits, with a view to obtaining a mining location for the same, but no mining location shall be granted until actual discovery has been made of the vein, lode, or deposit of mineral or metal within the limits of the location of claim.

A location for mining, except for Iron or Petroleum, shall not be more than 1,500 feet in length, nor more than 600 feet in breadth. A location for mining Iron or Petroleum shall not exceed 160 acres in area.

On discovering a mineral deposit, any person may obtain a mining location, upon marking out his location on the ground in accordance with the regulations on that behalf, and filing with the Agent of the Dominion Land for the district, within sixty days from discovery, an affidavit in form prescribed by Mining Regulations, and paying at the same time an office fee of five dollars, which will entitle the person so recording his claim to enter into possession of the location applied for.

At any time before the expiration of five years from the date of recording his claim, the claimant may, upon filing with the Local Agent that he has expended $500 in actual mining operations on the claim, by paying to the Local Agent therefor $5 per acre, cash, and a further sum of fifty dollars to cover the cost of survey, obtain a patent for said claim, as provided in the said Mining Regulations.

Copies of the Regulations may be obtained upon application to the Department of the Interior.

A. M. BURGESS,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
Department of the Interior, Ottawa, July 1890.) 3c.

Homestead Regulations.

All even-numbered sections of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-West Territories, except 8 and 26, which have been homesteaded, reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded by any person who is sole head of a family, or male over eighteen years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, or the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for an ordinary homestead entry; but for lands which have been acquired an additional fee of $10 is chargeable to meet inspection and cancellation expenses.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.

Under the present law homestead duties may be performed in three ways, and on making application for entry, the homesteader must declare under which of the following conditions he elects to hold his land:—

1. Three years' cultivation and residence during which period the settler may not be absent for more than six months in any one year without forfeiting the entry.

2. Residence for two years and nine months anywhere within two miles of the homestead quarter section, and afterwards actual residence in a habitable house upon the homestead for three months next prior to application for patent. Under this system 10 acres must be broken the first year after entry, 15 additional in the second, and 15 in the third year; 10 acres to be in crop the second year and 25 acres the third year.

3. The five years' system under which a settler may reside anywhere for the first two years; but must perfect his entry by commencing cultivation within six months after the date thereof, breaking 10 acres the first year, cropping 10 acres the second year, and also building a habitable house before the end of the second year. The settler must commence actual residence on the homestead at the expiration of two years from the date of entry, and thereafter reside upon and cultivate his homestead for at least six months in each of the three next succeeding years.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

may be made before the local agent, or any homestead inspector. Before making application for Patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, of his intention to do so. When, for convenience of the settler, application for patent is made before a homestead inspector, a fee of $5 is chargeable.

SECOND HOMESTEAD

may be taken by anyone who has received a homestead patent or a certificate of recommendation counter-signed by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands upon application for patent made by him, or had earned title to his first homestead, or prior to the second day of June, 1899.

INFORMATION.

Full information respecting the land, timber, coal or mineral laws, and copies of these Regulations, as well as those respecting Dominion Lands, may be obtained upon application to the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-West Territories.
